Age Learning

I Just Gotta Be Me: Authenticity and Canadian Politics. Scripted politicians sticking to carefully crafted messages has long been a part of politics in Canada. In other words, communications discipline now goes hand-in-hand with party discipline. But these days voters are craving “authentic” politicians, and this may be contributing to the rise of populist candidates who often say and do whatever they want. What do our Members of Parliament think about their own authenticity when it comes to their roles as elected representatives? What limitations does authenticity face in a parliamentary context like Canada's? This lecture will provide some preliminary insights into the role of authenticity in Canadian politics. About the Presenter Anna Esselment is an Associate Professor of Political Science and the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Waterloo. She researches and publishes about Canadian political parties, elections and campaigns, political mar

Halloween enthusiasts, of all ages, are invited to don their favourite costumes (encouraged, but not required) and join us at McDougall Cottage for a fun-filled, spook-tacular tea to celebrate the coming of Samhain (a.k.a. Halloween). We'll be having some of our favourite tea treats alongside goodies with a special Halloween twist (the term "finger sandwiches" takes on a whole new meaning). Plan to join us, if you dare! Please note: If you have questions relating to dietary restrictions please contact us before purchase at mcdougall@regionofwaterloo.ca. Gluten-free options are only available at our specialty gluten-free teas. Check our website for upcoming dates or please email us. To assist staff with event set-up: If the members of your party are purchasing tickets individually, rather than under one reservation please email us in advance of the tea, so we can be sure to seat all the members of your party together. mcdougall@regionofwaterloo.ca. Stock-in-Transit

September 12, 2024 - January 17, 2025 Visit the lobby at Idea Exchange Queen's Square to experience an installation featuring a vibrant collection of items draping the doorway. The installation encourages a moment of pause to wonder and search as the work inspires critiques of consumerism. Torres' installation uses familiar domestic, institutional, and recreational items to elevate our appreciation of the everyday while also inviting reflection on the challenges of consumer culture—our tendency to accumulate and the growing complexities of storing, recycling, and disposing of surplus goods. This installation reuses the items from Material Culture, an exhibition produced by the University of Waterloo Art Gallery. They generously allowed us to give the items another life before donating them to consumer distribution. Explore: José Luis Torres: A Site-Specific Installation Accessibility If

Halloween Pumpkin Pop-Up Display

October 21 - November 1, 2024 Sculpted and carved pumpkins abound in this spooktacular Halloween pop-up display featuring the work of Cambridge-based artist, Greg Latimer. About the artist Greg Latimer is a local once-a-year artist who sculpts pumpkins, squashes, and potatoes, and writes about himself in the third person. He skins and sculpts unsuspecting fruits and vegetables with clay ribbon sculpting tools and then preserves his work in various glass containers filled with vinegar. Don't worry though- The rest of the year he's actually pretty normal. Greg won the Cambridge Public Library Pumpkin Carving Contest last year and demonstrated his skills at an Artist-at-Work showcase at the Kitchener Public Library in 2019. He lives in Cambridge with his son, who also loves carving pumpkins. Stitching Science

October 22, 2024 - March 30, 2025 Cambridge Art Galleries' inaugural pop-up exhibition at Idea Exchange, Old Post Office, features the work of Guelph-based artist Lauren Wright Vartanian. Her latest work, Stitching Science, merges art and science in 27 intricate diagrammatic embroideries. A culmination of three years of work and countless stitches, these embroideries, each representing a letter of the alphabet, depict scientific concepts in a creative and accessible way. This exhibition coincides with Wright Vartanian's book release, Stitching Science: Exploring Science from A to Z, published by Firefly Books in the fall of 2024. Lauren Wright Vartanian is a multidisciplinary artist currently focusing on textile art. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Drawing and Painting from OCAD University, where she graduated in 2006. She has been creating and selling art under the name Neurons and Nebulas since 2016. Her work blends art and science in a way that is fun and educational, but also beau

Community Desk: Welcome YMCA Immigrant Services

As a primary settlement agency in Cambridge, YMCA Immigrant Services acts as a "first stop" for newcomers. Through the YMCA Library Settlement Partnerships (LSP), our Settlement Workers are located within the libraries to continue to support newcomer and immigrant needs. Our Settlement Workers can provide support with citizenship, housing, education, English language assessments, connecting with community resources, and much more. Through our collaboration with Idea Exchange, together we are working to foster a smooth transition into the Cambridge community. The Library Settlement Partnership program is a partnership of Idea Exchange, the YMCA's Immigrant Services Program, and Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). Services Offered: Virtual settlement support to newcomers. Information sessions relevant to newcomer needs in collaboration with Idea Exchange. LSP staff provide orientation to library services and referrals. Services available virtually, over the phone, and
