"The Dark Side of Galt" Halloween Edition Evening Walking Tours

As we gear up for the spookiest night of the year, join us for a special edition of our Dark Side of Galt walks as we explore tales of some of the ghostly inhabitants that make up Galt's downtown core. We've compiled all of our favourite stories to share about experiences with the paranormal, and who knows, before the night's over maybe we'll even have some new stories to add of our own. Please note: Tours begin at 6:30pm and 7:00pm sharp and run for approximately 90-minutes, departing from, and finishing up at McDougall Cottage unless otherwise stated. The tours may include hills, stairs and uneven terrain. Participants should dress for the weather. Phones are recommended, but not required, to access photos of the sites we are visiting. Flashlights are also recommended but not required. No washroom facilities available during tour. Ages 14 + only for walking tours. Pre-registration is required and space is limited, so register early! Capacity is limited to 15 participants per walk. This wa

September 12, 2024 - January 17, 2025 Visit the lobby at Idea Exchange Queen's Square to experience an installation featuring a vibrant collection of items draping the doorway. The installation encourages a moment of pause to wonder and search as the work inspires critiques of consumerism. Torres' installation uses familiar domestic, institutional, and recreational items to elevate our appreciation of the everyday while also inviting reflection on the challenges of consumer culture—our tendency to accumulate and the growing complexities of storing, recycling, and disposing of surplus goods. This installation reuses the items from Material Culture, an exhibition produced by the University of Waterloo Art Gallery. Halloween Pumpkin Pop-Up Display

October 21 - November 1, 2024 Sculpted and carved pump-kings abound in this spooktacular Halloween pop-up display featuring the work of Cambridge-based artist, Greg Latimer. About the artist Greg Latimer is a local once-a-year artist who sculpts pumpkins, squashes, and potatoes, and writes about himself in the third person. He skins and sculpts unsuspecting fruits and vegetables with clay ribbon sculpting tools and then preserves his work in various glass containers filled with vinegar. Don't worry though- The rest of the year he's actually pretty normal. Greg won the Cambridge Public Library Pumpkin Carving Contest last year and demonstrated his skills at an Artist-at-Work showcase at the Kitchener Public Library in 2019. He lives in Cambridge with his son, who also loves carving pumpkins. Tim Cook: Good Allies

How Canada and the United States fought together to defeat fascism. Stop by the Rookery Books table to purchase books and get them signed by your favourite author as a memento of this thrilling event. The Good Allies is a masterful account of how Canadians and Americans made the transition from wary rivals to steadfast allies, and how Canada thrived in the shadow of the military and global superpower. In exploring this complex and crucial dimension of the Second World War and its legacy, Cook recounts two nations' story of co-operation, of sacrifice, and of bleeding together to save the world from the fascist threat. Registration is required to confirm attendance. Limited entry without registration may be available at the door. Doors open at 6:00 pm. About the Author Tim Cook is Chief Historian and Director of Research at the Canadian War Museum. His bestselling books have won multiple awards, including four Ottawa Book Awards for Literary Non-Fiction and two C.P. Stacey Awards for the best b

Reading Buddies

Kids practice their reading with a teenage buddy. This program is designed for children struggling to read at their grade level. Reading skills will be developed and practiced through fun and interactive literacy-based group games and activities. Children will also have the opportunity to read one-on-one with their teen volunteer buddy. Teens interested in becoming a Reading Buddy must complete our online volunteer application form. They will be contacted for an interview and orientation by our volunteer coordinator. Accessibility If you require an accessibility accommodation for this program or event, please tell us how we can meet your needs as soon as possible so arrangements can be organized.
