DÃ©rives

December 9, 2023 to March 17, 2024 Curated by Alix VozAware that movement is self-constructed, Torres is attentive to the forks in our paths and direction changes that shape our contemporary way of life. The installation creates a space of questioning about a reality in which displacement invokes both the fragility and the adaptability of the human being. At the intersection of art and architecture, or rather a product of their synergy, DÃ©rives manifests as a space of freedom paving the way for limitless possibilities. This project materializes as an immersive and organically designed architectural ensemble, beckoning visitors to explore its depths and take ownership of the space itself. Conscient que le mouvement est aussi une construction de soi, Torres est attentif aux bifurcations et aux changements de direction qui façonnent notre mode de vie contemporain. ### Connections 50+ presents Cambridge Third Age Learning

Drawing the Line: Hate Propaganda and the Limits of Free Expression in Canadian History Freedom of speech and freedom of expression are at the core of how Canadian democracy has been defined. However, the extent to which these rights can reasonably be limited by law remains a subject for debate. The controversy over government attempts to regulate hate speech provides one clear example; revealing the tensions between the right to freely express oneself and the right of members of identified groups to live free from hatred and discrimination. The issue of hate speech and questions over its regulation have taken on a new urgency in recent years, especially given the growing challenge of online hate. Yet, public and media discussions on these topics often lack the historical and legal context necessary to fully understand the rise and growth of hate propaganda in Canada and the current laws that are in place to restrict hateful speech. This talk will therefore trace the history of hate movem

Maple Tea by the Grand at McDougall Cottage

Join us for one of McDougall Cottages' ever-popular Teas by the Grand. We'll be serving up our classic tea with sweets and savouries, like cucumber and cream cheese tea sandwiches, scones with preserves and whipped cream and more! Since it's Maple Season, this time around some of our sweets will feature a "maple twist"! Please note: If you have questions regarding dietary restrictions please contact us before purchase at mcdougall@regionofwaterloo.ca. Gluten-free options are only available at our specialty gluten-free teas. Check our website for upcoming dates or please email us. To assist staff with event set-up: If the members of your party are purchasing tickets individually, rather than under one reservation please email us in advance of the tea, so we can be sure to seat all the members of your party together mcdougall@regionofwaterloo.ca Children under the age of three do not require a ticket, however please let us know if they are attending so that we can account for that whe
